Pike & Joyce 2018 Descente Sauvignon Blanc

I get it. Sauvignon blanc is not for everyone. But when done well, like it is here, is is a bloody brilliant wine for summer enjoyment; fresh, zesty and vibrant and a perfect foil for crustaceans and grilled fish dishes, as well as oysters. This is a zingy wine for immediate enjoyment made from 100% Lenswood fruit, which presents with citrus and tropical flavours and zingy acid on the finish. A classic cool-climate white with widespread appeal to all except insufferable wine snobs. $26. www.pikeandjoyce.com.au.

Pinot noir from the Adelaide Hills.

It's fairly light in weight but it's a complex offering and an appealing one. Cranberry and redcurrant flavours mix with musk and sweet spices. It draws you in and keeps you happy throughout. Entirely varietal from start to finish and not a kink in sight; it's it feels supple and fluid at all times.
